

Bristol Hill and Brislington Hill Overview

© Crown Copyright and database right 20223. Ordnance Survey AC0000807971

All the pictures are examples from other places, just to give a bit of an idea of how things might look

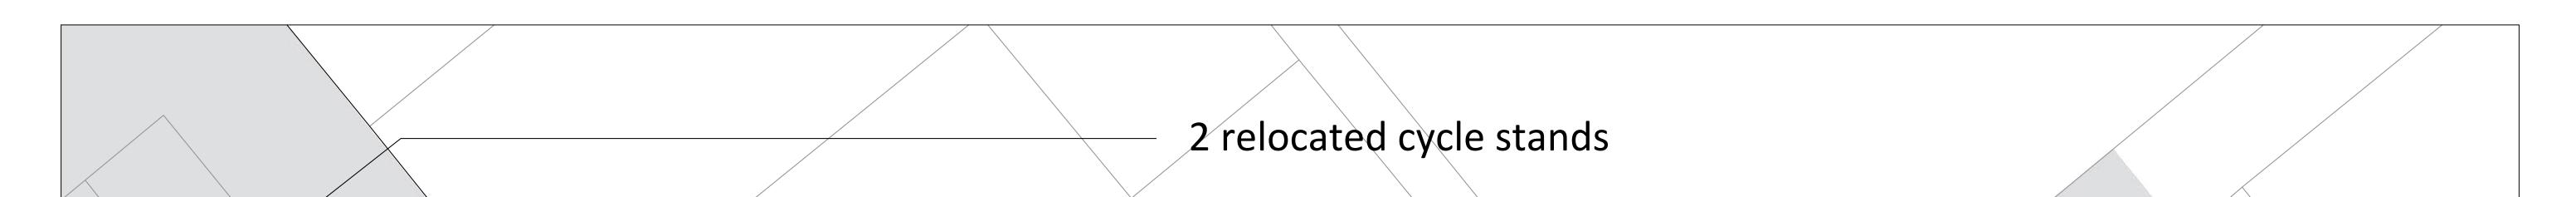

New planting beds with colourful, insect friendly planting along roadside

Off street parklets planters incorporating artwork, a rich variety of plants and timber slatted seats. Alternatively a combination of standalone planters and seats New trees on the traffic islands in the middle of Bristol Hill. Replacement of the snapped off tree.

High Streets Recovery and Renewal

Brislington Hill Shops Detail

'Parklet' with raised planters and internal seats and paved base flush with existing paving. Design to compensate for slope. Alternatively, a combination of standalone planters incorporating colourful artwork in combination with timber slatted seats

-Keep 2 existing seats in place

-Existing post box

-Turn existing seat the other way

Remove broken seat

 'Parklet' with raised planters and internal seats and paved base flush with existing paving. Design to compensate for slope.
Alternatively, a combination of standalone planters incorporating colourful artwork in combination with timber slatted seats

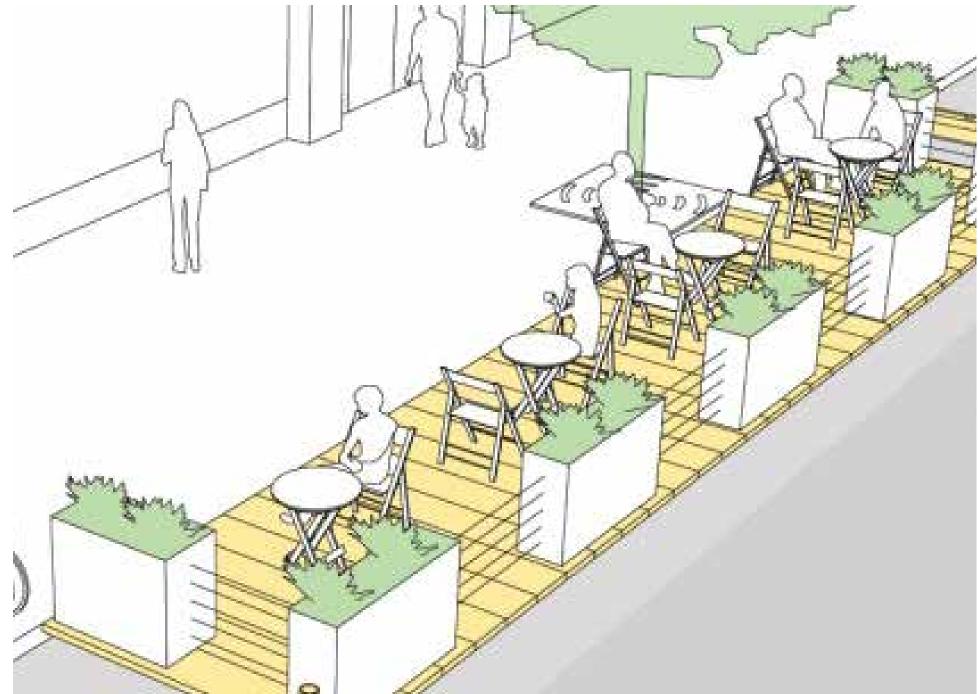

© Crown Copyright and database right 20223. Ordnance Survey AC0000807971

All the pictures are examples from other places, just to give a bit of an idea of how things might look

 $\langle \rangle$

 $\langle \rangle$

Parklets or standalone planters and seats will provide some separation from the Bath Road and social sitting places surrounded by plants

The semi-enclosed seating areas will be open on the shops side. They will be designed so that they go straight on the ground without a deck The parklets or planters will be designed just for this location and incorporate colourful artwork that uses images that have local meaning

High Streets Recovery and Renewal