

Bristol Legacy Commission

Community members

- Princess Campbell: Lifelong work in the Health Service, and leading advocate for provision for BME Elders, including member of the Older People's forum.
- Beverly Douglas: Recently completed secondment to the Black Police Association as part of her role as a serving officer in Avon and Somerset Constabulary.
- Dr Marie Annick Gournet: Principle lecturer at the University of West of England, and university lead on diversity (including chairing the BME Aim Higher West Partnership).
- Marie Hackett: Member of the Race Forum, equalities advocate to stop trafficking within the Catholic Church and campaigning to stop trafficking.
- Canon Tim Higgins: City Canon, based at Bristol Cathedral, leading on the redevelopment of St Stephens Church as a centre for creativity and faith
- Ras D Judah: Long serving sports coach (formerly cricket development officer with BCC) and community activist.
- Marvin Rees: Currently Bristol PCT lead on BME mental health, and other interests include journalism and political theory. Sits on DCLG national policy group on involving communities.
- Paul Stephenson OBE (Chair): Life long campaigner for justice, including leading Bristol Bus Boycott. Worked for UK Sports Council for many years made Freeman of the City of Bristol in 2008, and received OBE in the 2009 New Years Honours list.

Political membership

- Guy Poultney: Liberal Democrat.
- Peter Hammond: Labour.
- Jay Jethwa: Conservative.

Co-optees

- Barbara Brown: Avon Fire and Rescue Service Head of Equality Diversity and Communities.
- Latif Ismail: Chair, Bristol Somali Forum.