

Bristol City Council Creative Seed Fund Projects 2017/2018 (Awarded March 2017)

Recipient	Project Title	Project description	Award amount
TrashDollys Dance Theatre	Creed of Youth	Over two weeks we will work with a community cast and a group of experienced dancers aged between 16 – 25, to create two dance pieces that explore mental health issues commonly found in young people.	£2,950.00
Pippa Robinson	Grandmother's Footsteps	An intergenerational arts project promoting and nourishing creative relationships between Grandmothers, mothers and daughters in families living in Fishponds and Knowle West.	£2,973.00
Barbara Disney	Crowd	Crowd, an installation made by people who face barriers to the cultural life of Bristol, to give them a presence and a voice.	£3,000.00
Alice Nicholas	Eclipse Development and Production	A collaboration with the Creative Youth Network to develop and perform a verbatim inspired piece of theatre exploring the narrative of a transgender young person based on true stories.	£2,953.00
Tandem Print	A Community Shelter	A series of printmaking workshops in five different locations culminating in tent-based installations celebrating cultural diversity in Bristol.	£3,000.00
Rising Arts Agency CIC	All In The Mind?	A young people-led photographic project exploring personal and political issues relating to mental health. Through the virtual and physical exhibition of their images, young people will actively contribute to better mental health education.	£2,922.48
Invisible Youth	Invisible Youth in Circus City	Giving the young people of East Bristol the opportunity to co-create a unique professional production with mentoring artists from Invisible Circus, alongside Circus City Festival. Bringing theatre audiences to Social Circus projects and spotlighting and endorsing these Bristol communities.	£3,000.00
Spit & Polish	Unspoken Words	Spit & Polish will provide experienced performance poets to run spoken word workshops for older people suffering with isolation and loneliness and younger people from disadvantaged backgrounds. The groups will work together to write poems which they will perform.	£2,445.00

The Misfits Theatre Company UK	Hidden Voices	'Hidden Voices' poetry project provides the opportunity for PWLD to be heard and connect with the wider community. Providing a platform through two exhibitions to change community experience of PWLD and empower the writers and performers involved.	£2,950.00
DragonBird Theatre CIC	Young Families Early Years Theatre	The Young Families Early Years Theatre Project will deliver theatre and play sessions to students of the Meriton School. Giving young parents and their children the opportunity to experience live theatre, play together and bond in a familiar environment.	£2,700.00
Arts Enlarge	Bigger Than Me	'Bigger Than Me' invites individuals in Henbury, Sea Mills, Shirehampton, Avonmouth, Lawrence Weston and Southmead to work with artists to create the parts of a large scale giant. This giant will be the centre piece of pride at a community celebration and in doing so will unite diverse communities.	£3,000.00
Vicky Harrison	The Bristol Crocodile	A project which has grown out of intense community involvement with BRISWOOL, developing the skills of many people and in the course producing a beautiful woolly crocodile showcasing innovative techniques and process and becoming a Bristol icon.	£3,000.00
Liz Clarke & Company	Cannonballista!	A series of high-impact workshops for women resulting in new performance. An exploratory process focussing on creativity and support; the legacy of which will be a bespoke & highly visual bookwork, exploring good practice within the arts.	£3,000.00
		Total	£37,893.48