Bristol City Council is the data controller for the purposes of the Data Protection Act 1998 and other relevant regulations. The purpose of this privacy policy is to tell you about what information we collect about you when you use our service, how we use that information and who we may share it with.

The contact details of the data controller are Rachel Cooke; on behalf of Bristol City Council, City Hall, Bristol, BS1 5TR

What data we need to collect and the legal basis for processing it:

To deliver this service, we will process Name, Address (including postcode), Date of Birth, Contact details, Ethnicity, Gender, Height, Weight, date measured, BMI centile and change. We are collecting this data because processing is necessary for compliance with a legal obligation and processing is necessary for the purposes of preventative of occupational medicine, for assessing the working capacity of the employee, medical diagnosis, the provision of health or social care or treatment or management of health or social care systems and services on the basis of Union or Member State law or a contract with a health professional requires it.

How long we will keep your data for:

We will hold this information from the start of the programme (2006), and will hold the data until the child reaches the age of 25. The period of time that we will hold this data for will facilitate trend analysis, and to resolve parent/carer queries relating to previous years of the programme.

Why we need to collect your data:

We will use this information for our statutory duty to submit this data annually to NHS Digital, via a web-based system they provide. The data is also used to generate personalised feedback letters to parents and carers based on the specific measurements of their child. Record level data used for a wide variety of analyses of the prevalence of excess weight / obesity, cross referenced via postcode of residence to a number of other local geographies (deprivation quintiles, children centre catchments, school pupil catchments, wards, etc).

Where we have obtained your data from a third party:

We obtained this data from Childrens Community Health Partnership. The data we have obtained was process Name, Address (including postcode), Date of Birth, Contact details, Ethnicity, Gender, Height, Weight, date measured, BMI centile and change.

Yours rights as a data subject:

You have the right to request access to your data and where data is found to be inaccurate to have that data corrected. In certain circumstances you have the right to have data held about you erased, or the use of it restricted, you may be able to object to processing as well as the right to have your data transferred to another data controller.

You have the right to object to the processing of your information and to have any inaccurate information corrected. You also have a right of complaint to the Information Commissioner's Office (ICO) at www.ico.org.uk if you think we have dealt with your information in an inappropriate manner.

You can ask to see what information we hold about you and have access to it. You can do this, by contacting:
