

Privacy Notice

Bristol City Council is the data controller for the purposes of the Data Protection Act 1998 and other regulations including the General Data Protection Regulation (Regulation (EU) 2016/679), which means it determines what your data is used for and why it is collected. The purpose of this privacy notice is to tell you about what information we collect about you when you use our service, how we use that information and who we may share it with.

The contact details of the data controller are Bristol City Council, City Hall, PO Box 3176, Bristol, BS3 9FS

What data we need to collect and the legal basis for processing it:

To provide this service, we will process names and addresses and grounds for objection. We are collecting this data because we are required to under The Local Authorities' Traffic Orders (Procedure)(England and Wales) Regulations 1996.

How long we will keep your data for:

We will hold this information for a period of one year after the Order is sealed and the deadline for challenge period has elapsed. After this, your information will be deleted or archived.

Why we need to collect your data:

We will use this information for considering objections received through the Traffic Regulation Order procedure, before an Order is made. In Bristol, authority to determine the outcome of the objection process has been delegated to the Council's Service Director for Transport.

Who we share your data with and why:

This data will only be shared within the Council's Transport department and the Service Director for Transport for the purposes of making the decision.

Elected Councillors for the affected wards, and occasionally the Council's Cabinet Member for Transport & Connectivity will receive a redacted version of the objection report, but may be able to identify you if you have contacted them separately.

Your rights as a data subject:

You have the right to ask for access to your data and where data is found to be inaccurate to have that data corrected. In certain circumstances you have the right to have data held about you erased, or the use of it restricted. You may be able to object to processing and may also have the right to have your data transferred to another data controller.

You also have a right of complaint to the Information Commissioner's Office (ICO) at www.ico.org.uk if you think we have not dealt with your information in a proper manner.

You can ask to see what information we hold about you and have access to it. You can do this by contacting:
