Dear Sarah,

Designation of Redcliffe Residents Action Group & Neighbourhood Forum

As discussed, I write to apply for the designation of the Redcliffe Residents Action Group and Neighbourhood Forum (RRAGNF) to become the Neighbourhood Planning Forum for Redcliffe, Bristol.

Redcliffe first became a neighbourhood planning area in 2011 and the community has been active about developing a positive vision for how it wants the neighbourhood to develop now and in the future. The community has worked hard to develop a draft Neighbourhood Plan, which can be viewed here: <http://www.redcliffeforum.org.uk/resources/>. The abundance of over-engineered roads and carparks which dominate the area mean there are plenty of opportunities to rethink the physical structure of the neighbourhood and improve it as a place to live and work. Critical in making this happen is overcoming the divide that Redcliffe Way creates between north and south Redcliffe.

The community has been working closely with Bristol City Council on these ideas through a special Joint Delivery Board, and the council is now ready to begin implementing some of the those ideas. It is now more important than ever that the Redcliffe community is properly represented in what is an historic moment of reshaping a significant part of the city centre.

The RRAGNF was set up in January 2018, a newly constituted voluntary community organisation that merges the Redcliffe Residents Action Group and the Redcliffe Neighbourhood Development Forum. The Redcliffe community – which has historically been fragmented, is now working really well together across old divides and building more positive connections.

The two groups merged to become a more effective and representative voice for the community of Redcliffe, and the group has a shared set of aims and new constitution, at the heart of which is the purpose of improving the social, economic and environmental well-being of the area. A copy of the agreed constitution is attached as a separate document.

We currently have 53 members, each of whom have individually confirmed their support for this aim and the development of the Neighbourhood Plan in writing. Membership is open to anyone who lives or works in the area – we currently have 11 member who don't live but do work in the area.

A table of members' postcodes (excluding the two ward councilors, Paul Smith and Kye Dudd who are both active members) is included as an attachment. This shows the diverse geographical range of members – including South, North, East and West Redcliffe, with members living in different tenures and types of housing including Finzels Reach, the Iron Foundry, Proctor House, Waring House, Dr Whites and Custom House. Our members age between 23 and 82. And our ethnic profile is becoming more diverse. For example at the last monthly meeting 6 people of Somali background attended. We also have 817 followers on Twitter.
