

Bristol City Council art funds

Originators

This is funding from 1 day to 12 months for projects completed in a year, such as:

- community festivals with arts and culture focus
- an arts project offering quality experiences that people in Bristol take part in
- small-scale activities for testing new ideas
- partnerships working with local communities
- professional development

Projects must commence from 1 April 2018.

The amount you can apply for per year is £500 to £5,000.

No match funding required.

Who can apply

This funding is available to individuals, community groups and organisations such as unincorporated organisations such as voluntary groups.

Openness

This is core funding for up to four years, 2018 to 2022, for established arts and cultural organisations with a year round programme. The maximum grant is no more than 5% of annual turnover and reduces over the duration of the funding.

Successful applicants will be announced after 12 December 2017, subject to Cabinet approval.

Imagination

Funding for up to two years, runs 2018-20 and 2020-22, for imaginative projects and programmes, development of organisations and work with communities that increases access to arts and culture.

Projects commence from 1 April 2018.

The amount available is £5,000 to £40,000 per year.

Match funding is required, meaning you'll need to find another funding source that will match a minimum of 25% of the total budget requested.

Successful applicants will be announced after 12 December 2017, subject to Cabinet approval. This fund will open again in 2019.
