

Useful websites and resources to support inclusion

Website name and link	Description
Achievement For All	A whole-school improvement programme that aims to improve the academic and social outcomes of primary school pupils.
Autism support toolkits (Bristol Autism Team)	A set of toolkits that offer advice and practical ways to support and include autistic children and young people.
Bristol's SEND Local Offer	Provides comprehensive information and support for children and young people aged 0 to 25 with SEND, including details on services, education, and local support networks.
Council for Disabled Children	Provides policy advice, resources, and advocacy for SEND, including practical tools to support inclusion.
Down's Syndrome Association	Provides information and resources for supporting children with Down's Syndrome.
Bristol Early Years Inclusion Team	Strategies to use with individuals or groups and training for Early Years Practitioners.
Education Endowment Foundation	Research-based resource and tools to help schools improve outcomes for disadvantaged children. Offering guidance on effective teaching strategies, interventions, and best practices.
MENCAP	A UK charity that supports people with learning disabilities and their families. It provides information, advice, advocacy, and practical support to help individuals live more independent lives, access services, and overcome challenges.
National Association for Special Educational Needs (NASEN)	Offers resources, professional development materials, and tools to help educators implement a graduated response to meet the needs of children with SEND and support a whole school approach to inclusion.
Rainbow Trust	Provides emotional and practical support to children and families affected by life-limiting or life-threatening conditions.
Royal Institute of Blind People (RNIB)	Links to useful resources and a document listing teacher-reviewed resources for blind and partially sighted learners.
SEN Tools	Offers practical tools, assessment resources, and guidance for teachers to support children with SEND and implement a graduated response framework.
Sensory Support Service	For CYP with sensory impairment (vision, hearing or multi-sensory) information from Sensory Support Service is available to support settings understand the specific, individual needs of these CYP.

Website name and link	Description
Supporting CYP with medical conditions	Guidance for supporting CYP with specific medical conditions in schools. Sets out how individual health care plans should be used to ensure CYP are supported properly.
The Autism Education Trust	Offers training, resources, and guidance to support the education of autistic young people. Includes: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• training programmes</li> <li>• practical resources: range of teaching materials, toolkits, strategies to help support learning and inclusion</li> <li>• guidance and support: advice on how to implement effective autism-specific interventions and create personalised learning plans that promote inclusion and success</li> </ul>
The Communication Trust	A charity focused on supporting children and young people with speech, language, and communication needs. This will include information on Dyspraxia (CAS), Developmental Language Disorders (DLD), 'Phonological Disorders, and Speech Sound Disorders.
The Dyslexia-Specific Learning Difficulties website	Offers advice and support for teachers and parents of children with dyslexia.
The National Autistic Society	A leading UK charity for autism that provides advice, resources, and training for educators to help them include autistic children in mainstream education.
The National Sensory Impairment Partnership (NSIP)	The NSIP provides resources, training, and best practice guidance to support the education of students with vision, hearing, and multi-sensory impairments. It helps educators create inclusive environments, offers professional development, and advocate for improved services and inclusion for these students.
Twinkl SEND Resources	Provides a wide array of SEND-specific resources, including differentiated learning activities, visual aids, and strategies for supporting students with SEND.
West Sussex Local Offer specific needs for 0 to 5 year olds	For additional tips and ideas around specific areas of need.
Department for Education: Guidance on the Equality Act 2010 and advice for schools  Further information about disability discrimination	Guidance on the Equality Act 2010 and advice for schools about how this affects them and how to fulfil their duties under the act.