How will this service use your personal data?

We are collecting this data pursuant to legal obligations arising from statutory function or performance of a task carried out in the public interest.

If you don't allow us to use your data, this will mean that for example:

- your complaint cannot be pursued,
- your licence or consent application cannot be processed,
- registration or permit cannot be processed,
- we cannot investigate the matter further,
- your accident may not be investigated,
- your infectious disease report may not be pursued.

What data we need to collect and use?

To provide these services, we will collect and use some or all of the personal information below:

Privacy Notice Bristol City Council

- name,
- date of birth,
- email addresses,
- gender,
- photographs,
- passport
- driving licence information,
- tax and DVLA check codes,
- contact telephone numbers,
- physical addresses
- business details including legal entities and trading locations.
- health data if required,
- criminal proceedings including outcomes and sentences and alleged offences.

We get most of this information from you and from what we learn about you through your use of our services, but we may also get some information about you when exercising powers associated with regulatory functions and when conducting criminal investigations.

Who else might we share your personal information with?

Sometimes we may need to share your information, but we will only do so where we have a valid legal basis to share data. We will only share the minimum information for each circumstance. We may share some of your personal information with one or more of the following:

- Bristol City Council jointly hosts the National Trading Standards Estate & Letting Agency Team with Powys County Council. This reflects their appointment as lead enforcement authority (LEA) under the Tenants Fees Act 2019 and Estate Agents Act 1979 respectively. The LEA's work as a single team with shared resources and data collected relating to the Estate Agency & Lettings sector will be shared between the two local authorities.
- Bristol City Council shares information with Avon & Somerset Police to assist with regulating the taxi and private hire industry including licensed vehicles, drivers, and operators as well as unlicensed activity. Data will be shared to facilitate this capability which contributes towards maintaining public safety.
- In respect of taxi drivers (either Hackney Carriage or Private Hire) who have had their licence revoked or suspended, details will be shared with the National Anti-Fraud Network who host a national database of all revocations and suspensions. The purpose of this is public safety, enabling local authorities when receiving applications to verify if the applicant has been subject to sanction elsewhere.
- Bristol City Council operates a number of Primary Authority agreements under the provisions of the Regulatory Enforcement & Sanctions Act 2008. Data provided by
