

Bristol Parks Calendar terms and conditions

You must read these terms and conditions before submitting your photos. By submitting a photograph to Our Parks Through Your Lens, you agree to these terms and conditions.

This is not a competition, and no cash prize or alternative reward will be offered.

Those chosen to feature in the calendar will be credited and sent a copy of the final calendar.

Eligibility

Our Parks Through Your Lens is open to both professional and amateur photographers.

By submitting a photograph on behalf of someone under 18, the parent or legal guardian confirms that they have read and agree to these terms and conditions.

Photography

All submitted photographs must be your own original work.

All photographs must be taken in a Bristol City Council-managed park or green space. Upon submission, details of where it was taken must be included.

If significant edits have been made to the image, please tell us what has been changed.

Submissions that are automatically generated by computer or created by artificial intelligence are strictly prohibited and will not be accepted.

By submitting an image containing identifiable individuals, you confirm that you have obtained their permission for the image to be submitted and used in accordance with these terms and conditions.

We cannot accept photos featuring children under the age of 16 without written permission from their parent or legal guardian. Bristol Parks may ask to see evidence of this permission.

Photos can be taken on any photographic device relevant to the category for which they are being entered but submitted files must be no bigger than 5MB. If your submission is shortlisted, then Bristol Parks may ask for a higher resolution image.

Bristol Parks may remove submissions that are offensive, inappropriate, unlawful or promote unsafe behaviour.

Copyright and Permissions

All submissions must ensure that the image does not include visible trademarks or intellectual property rights of any third party without their permission or in any way that would infringe on the use of the image by Bristol Parks, as detailed below under “Consent of Usage”

By submitting photographs to Our Parks Through Your Lens, you are confirming the following:

- That it is an original image taken by you
- In the case of multiple photographers’ involvement in the submitted image, that you have the permission of all other parties to submit the image
- That you have not licensed the image in any way which would be infringed on the use of the image by Bristol Parks, as detailed below under “Consent of Usage”
- That the image does not include visible trademarks or intellectual property rights of any third party without their permission or in any way that would be infringed on the use of the image by Bristol Parks, as detailed below under “Consent of Usage”
- That the image does not contain any product placement or promotion of a specific product or service
- That you have explained to anyone identifiable in the photo, that you will be submitting it to Bristol Parks, that they have had the opportunity to read these T&Cs regarding the use of the photo and you have their permission.

Consent of usage

Photographers grant Bristol Parks permission to use their name solely to identify them as the creator of their submitted photograph. Bristol Parks will ask contributors how they would like to be credited, either by first name only or by their full name.

Copyright remains with the photographer. By submitting a photograph, you grant Bristol Parks a non-exclusive, royalty-free, worldwide licence to use, reproduce, publish and share your image in the Bristol Parks Calendar and related Bristol Parks publications, websites, social media channels, exhibitions and promotional materials for a period of three years.

Images published on social media may be shared by other users and viewed outside the UK. Content published during the three-year licence period may remain available after the licence has ended, for example in printed materials, archived web pages or social media posts.

Bristol Parks may crop, resize or otherwise adapt images where necessary for publication. Wherever reasonably practicable, photographers will be credited.

Whilst Bristol Parks will endeavour to credit the photographer whenever their submitted image is used, it shall have no liability should the credit be inadvertently omitted for any reason.

Privacy and data protection

Bristol City Council is the data controller for the Our Parks Through Your Lens project.

We will collect your name, contact details and photographs for the purpose of administering the project and producing the Bristol Parks Calendar. We process this information based on your consent, which you provide when submitting your photograph.

We cannot accept submissions without contact information, as we need to be able to contact contributors whose photographs are selected for inclusion.

If your photograph is chosen for the calendar or related promotional materials, we may publish your name or chosen credit alongside the image.

Your personal information will only be accessed by Bristol City Council staff involved in delivering the project and will be processed in accordance with the UK General Data Protection Regulation (UK GDPR) and the council's privacy policy.

Personal data collected as part of the submission process will be retained for six months from the date of submission, after which it will be securely deleted in line with the council's records retention requirements.

Further information about how Bristol City Council processes personal data, including your data protection rights, can be found in the council's Privacy Policy.

Bristol Parks reserves the right to cancel this submission request at any time. In such an instance, all photographers will be informed.

Bristol Parks will not accept responsibility for submissions that are lost, mislaid, damaged or delayed in transit, regardless of cause, including, for example, as a result of equipment failure, technical malfunction, systems, satellite, network, server, computer hardware or software failure of any kind.
