

Bristol City Council is proud to support these projects through the Cultural Investment Programme Originators Fund 2022-23.

Project Name	Project Summary	Grant £
Acting Out of Isolation	A drama and arts project created and delivered by Young Disabled People, sharing their experiences of lockdown and inviting the wider community to join the conversation.	£5000
Bristol - Ballroom is Here	The Bristol Ballroom Community (BBC) would like to host a series of talks, workshops and classes from key members of the international Ballroom Community. This will culminate in the first official Vogue Ball in Bristol in July 2022.	£4381.50
Bristol Breakers	Providing an open, free, safe and inclusive space for dancers and people interested in Breaking (Breakdance) from all backgrounds to learn or improve their dance skills for two hours a week.	£4461
Bristol Young City Poet	Lyra Festival will create and establish a Bristol Young City Poet role. The project will engage and empower young people in Bristol through creative workshops on poetry and self-expression, and culminate in the appointment of a Bristol Young City Poet.	£5000
Connect, Develop and Create	(1) Facilitate three city-wide networking events for music, dance, and theatre. (2) Develop our website as a platform for diverse artists to connect, develop, and create. (3) Build partnerships and advance the city's high-profile 'Bristex' event in 2023.'	£5000
Ebb and Flow	Ebb and Flow is a project placing co-creation between Caring In Bristol's outreach participants and world class Bristol based artists at the heart of the celebrations for the 50th Harbour Festival in July 2022.	£5000

Everybody Dance Now - Lunar New Year	Community celebration of the Lunar New Year in Filwood, Knowle West. Starting with accessible dance and craft workshops for families and adults of all backgrounds, leading to a performance event with themes from East Asian and SE Asian culture.	£4967.50
Forgotten Songs and Stories	Heritage songs and stories will be explored by 15 women from Bristol diverse communities during 3 artist led workshops. The songs and stories will be published, and provide inspiration for a professional performance at Bristol Beacon.	£5000
Gig Buddies	GBB is a befriending project that enables and empowers people with learning disabilities and/or autistic people to enjoy cultural events going on in Bristol by pairing them up with new friends with similar interests to attend events with.	£5000
Little Lockleaze Legends	Imaginative and interactive workshops in Lockleaze for pre-schoolers and their carer living in Lockleaze. 1.5-hour sessions involving a range of arts activities: visual arts, dance, drama, storytelling and music to create a sensory, bonding and creative experience for those involved.	£5000
Refugee and Asylum Seeker Ambassador Programme	To recruit and train individuals with lived experience of the asylum process to be representatives for Bristol Refugee Festival, a voice for their community, an internal and external advisory group and an integral part of organisational decision-making, planning and delivery.	£4973
Saffron Routes	A new initiative that aims to inspire girls and minority genders to explore different aspects of music technology, through a series of practical workshops covering areas such as DJ-ing, sound engineering and music production.	£5000

Stone the Crones	Stone the Crones is a monthly spoken word night featuring older/aging/elder women, with accompanying monthly creative workshop to create and develop new material, practice and perform spoken word skills, and build confidence and community.	£5000
Sudafest	Sudafest is a free two-day event that showcases Sudanese cultural heritage through food, visual art and live performance, engaging Bristol's Sudanese community as creatives and audiences; providing a platform to share their rich cultural heritage with the wider community	£5000
“That Side feels...not Human” - Altered Body Perception after Stroke	Altered Body Perception is common after stroke. We will offer participatory art workshops to Bristol Stroke survivors to transform their experience through art, words and music into an animation which can be screened locally and shared online.	£4225
The Young Blood Youth Theatre	A series of inclusive weekly drama and theatre workshops for children and young people living in the Brislington, St Anne’s and Broomhill area. Bringing together the young community to celebrate their creative voice and develop new skills for their future.	£4761
Towards a Restful City	‘Towards a Restful City’ will create a support network for a group of chronically ill people, connect those people to cultural spaces across the city, and develop a Restful City Map.	£4970
TOTAL COST		£82,739