

September 2022 first round allocation statement for Redland Green School

As Redland Green School is oversubscribed, the admissions criteria published on the School and Local Authority website have been applied to allocate the places that are available at the school.

Number of applications received

847 on-time applications (349 first preferences, 294 second preferences and 202 third preferences and 2 fourth preferences) have been received for Redland Green School which has a published admission number of 216. School has breached the admission number for Year 7 in 2022 to 232.

11 places were required for children with the school named in their Education, Health and Care Plan.

This left 221 places to allocate using the published criteria.

How the initial allocation of places was made

The 221 places have been offered to the following children:

1. Those children who are defined as Children in Care or children who were previously in care but immediately after being in care became subject to an adoption, child arrangements or special guardianship order. (3 places)
2. Those children living within the area of first, second or joint priority for Redland Green School, with siblings of statutory school age attending the school, who will still be on roll in September 2022. (90 places)
3. Children who live within the area of first priority for Redland Green School, who live closest to the school as measured in a direct line from the home address to the school. (128 places)

The furthest distance offered a place in this category was 0.892 km.
