

Concept Design

Exciting new play area with colourful surfacing

New flexible paved space for markets and other events.

Flexible gateway structure/performance platform allowing pedestrians to walk through.

Raised tables carry footpaths across roads making for safe accessible crossings that also calm traffic.

Stone benches integrated in to the planting beds along the roadside

Attractive planting and new trees with high ecological value all along the road. These might become rain gardens which soak up water that runs off the roads and pavements.

3D Images

Birds eye view looking north along the Broadway from Creswicke Road towards the Community centre

Birds eye view looking south-east from above the community Centre towards the Broadway

Street level view looking north towards the Community Centre

Birds eye close up view looking north east towards the Community Centre

Street level view looking north from across Creswicke Road up Filwood Broadway

Street level view looking west across the road towards the new Market Square