Supporting City Centre and High Street Businesses

Starting a new business

If you're starting a new business in Bristol, the council website provides information and access to wide range of new business support services:

<https://www.bristol.gov.uk/business/business-support-and-advice/starting-a-new-business>

Business Start-up and Development Toolkit

Bristol City Council has developed a Business Start-up & Development Toolkit as part of its ongoing commitment to supporting the city's economy.

Although primarily intended to support businesses linked to Bristol's vibrant and diverse range of high streets/local centres, the toolkit includes a wealth of information that is relevant both to anybody starting, or thinking of starting, a business, and to those developing their enterprise.

Contents of the toolkit have been provided by local businesses, business advisors and traders' groups, and will updated as new information becomes available.

Download the toolkit from the council's high streets page:

<https://www.bristol.gov.uk/business/business-support-and-advice/high-streets>

Where's it to? Bristol

The Where's it to? campaign is an invitation to explore the city's high streets and to get to know the traders behind some of Bristol's much-loved businesses.

The campaign highlights the diversity of its traders and the areas of the city, to help encourage people to shop locally and to build stronger resilient independent businesses that are supported by their own communities.

The campaign website features nearly 400 traders across 47 high streets and invites people to explore the hidden gems on their doorstep.

Businesses interested in being added onto the Where's it to? website can email:

business@bristol.gov.uk to arrange a visit.

Business rates

Through the council website, ratepayers can self-serve to check and manage details.

You can:

Check your account: Use the balance checker to monitor your account, view liability, payments and reliefs.

Tell us you're moving: You can complete the online moving form to advise us of any changes in liability having moved out of your premises, moved into a new premises or if your property has become empty.

Discounts and exemptions: Use the online forms to find out if you're exempt from paying business rates or if you can get a discount, called a 'relief'.

Visit the business rates page on the council website:

Skills and support for the hospitality and the night-time economy sectors

Funded by the council and run by the Night Time Economy Advisor, Bristol Nights is at the heart of supporting Bristol's night-time economy and all businesses who operate between 6pm and 6am.

The sector accounts for a third of Bristol's workforce, supporting over 116,000 people, or 41% of the city's jobs.

Bristol Nights work in collaboration with nightlife stakeholders across the city and champion essential issues which support better jobs, safer environments, and practical advice or training for night workers.

Women's Safety Charter: a call to action for all organisations to join us in tackling gender inequality to make Bristol a fair and inclusive city, where everyone is welcome.

Anti-harassment training: a citywide invitation to all those employed in the night-time economy to sign up to the anti-harassment training session to take a zero-tolerance stance on harassment and hate crime in night-time spaces.

End drink spiking: The objective is to educate Bristol on the procedure of reporting and collecting evidence of drink spiking, to increase the prosecution rates of the people who carry out these crimes. Free Drink Spiking testing kits available for all licenced premises.

Harm reduction: provides a practical guide for venue owners and managers on how to embed harm reduction into your nightlife space, with a step-by-step approach to implementing training as a team and designing for safety into your working practices.

Employment, Skills and Learning

The Employment, Skills and Learning Team (ESL) brings together key council services. As one team we are able to plan and coordinate opportunities that support employment and education by matching people with job opportunities.

ESL includes: Apprenticeships team, Adult and Community Learning, Employment Support Services and Young Careers and Pathways.

esl@bristol.gov.uk

Apprenticeships support initiatives in the city that develop apprenticeship opportunities as long-term sustainable employment and we provide access to council levy funding for employers adding social value through apprenticeships.

bristol.apprentices@bristol.gov.uk

On Site Bristol Construction Apprenticeships support hundreds of young people and construction firms of all sizes to provide high quality skills:

www.onsitebristol.co.uk

onsitebristol@bristol.gov.uk

Food Talent Pathway Project is supporting small and medium-sized enterprises (SMEs) in the food sector to help them develop their workforce and grow their business. SMEs are being supported to provide experience of work for young people and to develop apprenticeships to grow their workforce. The project contributes to the Council's commitment of inclusive economic growth and equalising education and skills outcomes, connecting people to jobs and opportunities in their local community.

darren.perkins@bristol.gov.uk

Young Careers and Pathways:

This team comprises of Bristol WORKS and the Post 16 service aimed to specifically support young people at risk of becoming NEET.

Bristol WORKS – provides young people (11-16) with meaningful experiences of work so they can make the best career choices for them. We bring employers and education providers together to inspire young people and prepare them for the future.

Community Learning: Offers predominantly free courses to support residents of Bristol who are 19 or over with no or low qualifications to develop the functional skills and knowledge they need to progress into work or progress within work. We also work with employers to develop bespoke courses for their employees in English, maths, IT and English for speakers of other languages. Alternatively, we can develop courses linked to specific work sectors to support recruitment.

communitylearningwest.net

lct@bristol.gov.uk

Adult Learning: provides fee-based leisure learning. The team could work with businesses of any size to develop team building opportunities using a range of disciplines from cooking, arts and crafts or gardening skills. Alternatively, our venue at Stoke Lodge can be used for team meetings or events that would benefit from taking employees out of their usual working space.

Accreditations for your business

Bristol Eating Better Award

The Bristol Eating Better Award supports and rewards food businesses that take action to offer healthier food options and promote sustainability.

The free award promotes the use of local suppliers and the move to carbon neutrality to help to tackle the climate and ecological emergencies, inviting businesses to make small changes, such as providing free drinking water or minimising their food waste. By signing up you can help local people eat more healthily and sustainably.

Actions to achieve the award include:

- Making small changes, such as the ingredients they use or how they prepare food and serve the food.
- Offering healthier alternatives, such as more plant-based foods or less sugary products
- Encouraging customers to choose these alternatives, for example by making healthier options cheaper and highlighting them on your menu.
- Encouraging customers to bring their own reusable cups and containers to reduce single use plastic.

To find out more about the award, visit:

www.bristol.gov.uk/bristol-eating-better-award

or contact:

bristoleatingbetter@bristol.gov.uk

for help achieving the award.

Become a Living Wage employer

The real Living Wage is the only UK wage rate based on the cost of living. This is currently £12.60 outside of London. The hourly rate increases each year in line with the cost of living and is voluntarily paid by over 250 businesses headquartered in Bristol who believe their staff deserve a wage which meets everyday needs - like the weekly shop, or a surprise trip to the dentist.

Paying a real Living Wage is good for business too:

- 62% of employers said it improved recruitment of employees into their business
- 87% of employers said it improved their reputation

- 90% of consumers said they were more likely to buy a product or service from an employer that paid the real Living Wage
- Over a third of employers also reported that the Living Wage helped them secure contracts and funding

To find out more, visit the Living Wage Foundation website: www.livingwage.org.uk or email livingwage@bristol.gov.uk to see how Bristol City Council can help you achieve it.

Mental health and wellbeing

Thrive at Work

The Thrive at Work programme gives practical help and information, as well as the tools and training that business and organisations need to help promote good mental health practices in the workplace and support their employees.

Developed in partnership with Mind, the leading mental health charity, the programme includes free e-learning for managers called 'Managing Mental Health at Work'. The course emphasises the importance of looking after your and your employees' mental health and is designed to build your confidence in supporting your employees.

Employees can also benefit from a range of resources including Wellness Action Plans, suicide awareness training and 24/7 support and connect.

www.westofengland-ca.gov.uk/growth-hub/workforcedevelopment/thrive

Thrive at Night

The Thrive at Night initiative, by Bristol Nights, provides free mental health and wellbeing support for all those working in the night-time economy, from 6pm to 6am.

In response to the night-time community calling out for sector-specific support, a comprehensive package of support has been designed to empower compassionate leadership across the sector and help to create mentally healthy workplaces, including:

- A managers guide to creating mentally healthy workplaces
- A mental health workbook for night workers
- In-person participatory training, on a wide range of subjects
- More to come

Free training sessions are running monthly throughout the year.

- The hands-on introductory workshop will give you a framework relevant to your own business on how to get started on creating a mental health and wellbeing policy.
- The “Deep-Dive” mental health training sessions cover a range of topics around wellbeing in the night-time economy.

Green Business Support

Businesses can face barriers when it comes to investing in energy efficiency, including a lack of time, money or resources.

Through the West of England Combined Authority, a range of support and funding options are available to help SMEs cut costs and become more energy efficient, including:

- Carbon surveys – free impartial support to find ways of reducing greenhouse gas emissions and energy costs.
- Green business grants – funding to make energy savings and carbon reduction improvements to your buildings and operations.

- Rooftop solar grants – funding to install solar panels on larger commercial and industrial buildings.
- Heat pump grants – funding to install low carbon heating systems.
- Energy bill advice – get in touch to talk about ways to reduce your businesses energy costs.

The Growth Hub's Green Business Support pillar also outlines eight steps, from building your sustainability plan, measuring your current green credentials through to relevant events and connections to help you along the way.

Bristol's Climate Ask: play your part

Since becoming the first city in the country to declare a climate emergency, Bristol has taken huge strides towards becoming carbon neutral by 2030.

The decarbonisation of our economy will generate substantial business opportunities and will require all individuals, businesses and organisations to make changes, in the bid to avoid the worst effects of climate change.

The Bristol One City Climate Ask encourages businesses to declare your net zero climate ambition and offers support to develop a plan to reduce carbon emissions: www.bristolonecity.com/climate-ask

To help inspire others to take action, if your business or organisation has a story to tell on its journey to net zero, publicise it on your website and social channels using the hashtag #BristolClimateAction

Your business might not have all the answers but promoting the steps you are taking is an easy way to reach new customers, to future proof your business and to support the city-wide effort.

Climate Action Programme

Bristol Climate & Nature Partnership's Climate Action Programme offers free, practical support to businesses on reducing their carbon emissions.

It offers a series of events and a library of resources on a range of topics including:

- Creating a climate action plan
- Measuring and monitoring emissions
- Employee engagement
- Scope 3 emissions
- Reducing emission from energy use

It also facilitates the Climate Leaders Group, a peer-to-peer support group for organisations leading the way on climate action.

You can hear about all the Partnership's events and opportunities to get involved by signing up as a member.

Business waste and recycling

Waste Management

Every business in the city has a legal responsibility under the Environment Protection Act 1990 to safely contain and legally dispose of any waste. You have a 'Duty of Care' to manage your waste as follows:

- Waste must be collected by a licensed waste carrier.
- Your waste must be securely stored and locked away.

- The name of your business must be displayed on the waste.
- Waste must not be left beside bins or sacks.
- Access to the public highway must not be blocked.

Any business that does not comply could face:

- Fixed penalty notices of £110.
- Prosecution will be considered but as a last resort.

The Waste Improvement Project

To help businesses manage their waste and recycling responsibly our website provides an advisory and enforcement service on waste reduction, management, and litter control.

We have introduced a new standard for how commercial waste should be stored and how waste bins or sacks are presented on the highway and public land to help create a cleaner, safer, litter free environment.

Our aim is to encourage businesses to reassess their current waste disposal, storage and presentation practices, highlighting the aesthetic and functional impact on their immediate surroundings.

By addressing how waste management affects not only their business areas but also the accessibility and appeal of cleaner streets and pavements for the community and visitors, the initiative promotes a more attractive environment.

Our work with businesses has resulted in the removal of over 700 commercial waste bins from the streets of Bristol, creating valuable space that enhances the city's cleanliness and which makes it more inviting and easier to navigate for visitors and businesses alike.

Visit the council website for information on business waste and recycling:

www.bristol.gov.uk/business/health-and-safety/business-waste-recycling

Help us to keep the city clean

Improving the cleanliness of the city is a responsibility that we all need to share. Businesses can help to improve the cleanliness of the city by doing the following:

- Encourage your customers to put their waste in bins or to take it home.
- Keep your shop frontages clear of litter, waste and leaves if you can, which could be done during quiet times.
- Dispose of bulky goods correctly.
- Clear graffiti from your shop frontages.
- Encourage your employees to participate in corporate litter picking activities. Litter picking kits - Bristol Waste Company: bristolwastecompany.co.uk/household/get-involved/litter-picking-kits

- Help us by reporting fly tipping and other environmental issues such as streets that need to be cleaned. Report a street issue: www.bristol.gov.uk/residents/streets-travel/report-a-street-issue

Fix my Street

Fix my Street allows people to report problems such as graffiti, fly tipping, broken paving slabs, or street lighting in their local area.

The reports are shared with the council and published online, so others in the community can see what's already been reported.
