

Name of project	Project summary	£
20 Years of Room 13 Hareclive, Hartcliffe, Bristol, the World	From summer 2024 we'll celebrate the amazing creative achievements of our Hartcliffe artists' studio and 'generations' of children over 20 years through: a BS13 community event, a week long exhibition at M Shed, publicity and discussion.	£5,000.00
A Calendar of Stories	A Calendar of Stories is a year-long series of inclusive storytelling events for Early Years children, co-developed with Early Years settings, culminating in the co-creation of an Inclusive Storytelling Toolkit, to embed inclusive storytelling across Bristol's priority neighbourhoods.	£4,398.52
Barton Home	We will work with the Barton Hill community through hands-on engagement workshops to design a mural which we will paint at the heart of the community.	£4,950.00
Bog Idol	A events programme spanning arts, performance, & education, using 'The Bog' as a symbol for Queer archiving & transformation. Collaborating with LGBTQ+ creatives, academics & storytellers from around the city to manifest a hub for community education, creativity, and protective magic.	£5,000.00
Bristol Breaking Jam Circuit	A series of Breaking (Breakdance) events, to promote Breaking and Hip Hop culture in Bristol, partnering with different venues/locations. Originating from the iconic Docklands Community Centre, we aim to showcase the creativity and diversity of our consolidated community.	£4,965.40
Bristol Jazz Festival 2025 free stage and free participatory programme	In 2025, the Bristol Jazz Festival would like to host a free stage and participatory programme to showcase diverse local artists and enable people of all backgrounds to experience live jazz and get creative themselves without any financial barriers.	£5,000.00
Christmas Pantomime trip for socioeconomically disadvantaged young people	Engaging socio-economically disadvantaged young people across Bristol with the theatre by taking them on a trip to a Christmas pantomime: fostering cultural enrichment and alleviating financial barriers to accessing the theatre over the festive period, when families face additional costs.	£4,686.00
Circus Streets (working title)	An embedded programme of performance and workshops in partnership with Filwood Community Centre, taking the awe, joy and curiosity of live circus to the streets and into the heart of the community.	£5,000.00

Conversations with Baldwin: Bristol 2024	A satellite literature festival produced by Raise the Bar and Words of Colour as part of Conversations with Baldwin which celebrates the centenary of one of the 20th century's greatest writers, James Baldwin (1927 – 1984) in Bristol in Summer 2024.	£5,000.00
Coproduction Music Video	To create an animated music video: train a group of Bristol teenagers not in education, employment or training to animate with an iPad or smartphone leading to a co-produced stop motion animation in partnership with Babbasa Charity.	£4,890.00
Creative Waves	Diverse young people from around south Bristol running fun and inclusive mixed media creative exploration events in four priority areas. Sparking imagination and inspiration in people from all walks of life whilst connecting communities through creativity.	£5,000.00
Diverse Creative Drag Events	Aimed at improving inclusivity and diversity in the Drag scene for Neurodiverse and autistic creatives in Bristol and its surroundings, we aim to explore theatre, dance, gender identity and performance through a programme focused on Drag culture.	£4,200.00
Dovetail Musical Migrations	A rich creative learning and community engagement project based on world music workshops developed by refugees and asylum seekers, culminating in a concert celebrating Bristol's inclusive and innovative spirit, and the diversity of musical traditions found in our community.	£4,156.00
East Bristol Eco-Crafters	Upcycling workshops for children and families in Lawrence Hill with eco-art exhibitions to celebrate their learning. These exhibitions will be by kids for kids, using recycled materials and making pieces about saving the planet and understanding climate change.	£1,000.00
Elevate Tech Team	A series of training opportunities for young people who from groups that are underrepresented in the field of live sound. Specifically focussing on training young women of colour to deliver professional sound engineering services. Partnering with The Jam Jar Bristol.	£5,000.00
Empower and Elevate Our Communities	Empower and Elevate' — offering artist insight sessions, DYCP support, 1-1 mentoring, and a networking event for predominately Bristol's disadvantaged inner-city areas. Project will amplify representation, up-skill our communities, and transform cultural sector to better serve diverse artists, audiences, and workforces.	£4,765.00

Everybody's Business Theatre Show: Collaborative Development	A new theatre production for young people, created in collaboration with local primary school students. Full of fun, music and invention, this comedy romp through the digestive system will tour across Bristol to schools, community spaces, libraries and theatres.	£5,000.00
Firebird Installation	An accessible multimedia installation and live event at Arnolfini celebrating the history of Firebird Theatre and its role in disability arts, alongside organisational development and member recruitment to ensure the future of this trailblazing company.	£5,000.00
Gather up presents...	Gather Up Presents... will be a weekend of dance events including performance, film screening and workshops with a focus on inclusive practice, held at Arnolfini in Spring 2025.	£5,000.00
Giant Steps	Giant Steps, a free jazz event in Castle Park, powered by a team of young creatives, prioritising inclusivity and sustainability. It aims to elevate local artists, showcase sustainability in event production and spotlight Bristol as a vibrant cultural hub.	£5,000.00
Improv for Wellbeing	Can improv make us happier? We will: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>- explore potential of improv workshops for improving wellbeing in Bristol</li> <li>- work with existing and new partners to reach participants from different communities</li> <li>- learn from their expertise in measuring impact.</li> </ul>	£5,000.00
Introducing East Bristol Communities and Schools to Live Family Theatre	The Wardrobe Theatre will introduce social and economically disadvantaged children from East Bristol to the joys of live theatre with four weeks of family theatre shows across the year.	£4,910.00
Knowle West Fest	Knowle West Fest is a collaborative festival organised by Cloak Room CIC and members of the Knowle West Alliance delivering cultural activity, making the arts accessible while drawing on our strengths and resources as an alliance to benefit the community.	£5,000.00
Make Shift Meetups	Make Shift meet-ups are monthly sessions for early career creative technologists, artists and film makers looking to begin and maintain a career in the creative industries. This project will increase accessibility to vital networking events for all Bristol's citizens.	£4,994.00

Mayfest 2024	Mayfest is Bristol's internationally celebrated, locally beloved biennial theatre festival, taking place across the city. Mayfest presents bold, ambitious live performances with an emphasis on inclusive, accessible and diverse experiences that help us understand a changing world.	£5,000.00
New Queer writing; Exploring urban renewal, displaced communities, and personal stories in Bristol	Supporting new writing from Bristol based LGBTQ+ residents. A new cohort of 15 LGBTQ+ writers from across the city will receive 5 masterclasses to develop new work towards a sharing with their communities during LGBTQ+ history month in Feb 2025.	£5,000.00
Nouggara: Home of Sudanese Tunes	Nouggara celebrates Sudan's rich musical heritage through an exhibition of traditional instruments, workshops led by experienced Sudanese artists, seminars, panel discussions, and performances by Sudanese musicians. Nouggara forms part of the Sudafest Programme 2024.	£5,000.00
Reflecting on Collecting	Creative workshops to develop self-esteem and confidence in young people through exploration of objects in both our Collection and their own, targeting those who have barriers to creative access. The project culminates in a public exhibition of their work.	£4,385.00
RISE: Who gets to join in?	The funds will support the RISE team to focus on the development of the company. Following COVID and the cost of living crisis we particularly want to address the lack of participation of young people from less advantaged backgrounds	£2,793.00
Saturday Arts Sessions	Weekly Saturday morning Free eco-friendly nature inspired art, guided drama nature walks and inclusive play 10am-12pm for adults and their children. This project is based around nature themes and supports parents and carers to explore ways to be creative together.	£5,000.00
Scarf	Collaborative citywide art project bringing groups of people who are not socially engaged with cultural life in Bristol together to celebrate the city. Culminating in an exhibition and production of souvenir scarves for display and sale at cultural venues.	£5,000.00
Scribble and Sketch	The project is a programme of creative workshops for over 1,000 children and young people, along with their families, in four areas of deprivation and diversity in Bristol; Easton, Redcliffe, Southmead and Hartcliffe, where there is little other creative provision.	£5,000.00

Story Threads- Loves of Later Life	A creative collaboration between Alive Activities & Flibbertigibbet Theatre, with older people in care homes within Bristol. series of craft-based activities and storytelling workshops, participants will create pieces of work celebrating the stories of all aspects of love within their lives.	£4,900.00
The Misfits - The comeback (Working Title)	A new creative programme to increase the visibility of Misfits members as whole people with relatable experiences - not just as people who have a disability, through poetry, movement and film.	£4,950.00
The Mount Without Social Club	The Mount Without Social Club; a monthly performance event for Bristol residents aged 60+. Aimed at people from a low socio-economic background, TMW Social Club is a chance to enjoy high-end daytime entertainment, reduce social isolation & improve wellbeing through dance.	£2,500.00
The Neurodivergent Creatives Network	Monthly co-working and networking days for creative neurodivergent people over 6 months from May-October culminating in an audio/visual music based event in October/Nov created by and for Neurodivergent people taking into account a spectrum of different needs.	£3,482.60
The People's Art Club (PAC)	The PAC is an ongoing project to build community cohesion and well-being through providing space and resources for communal creative activities, explicitly inviting in marginalised people, both as participants and as workshop leaders.	£4,500.00
The Portable Wellbeing Studio	The project is a 2.5m x 5m art studio on wheels that we tow to schools and run art therapy sessions in it as well as wellbeing lessons and art-based teacher training.	£5,000.00
Theatre Club	Theatre Club addresses access barriers to theatre for queer, neurodivergent young people in Bristol by supporting marginalised groups to attend performances. It develops civic engagement, familiarity with and awareness of Bristol theatre, validates participants' views and experiences, and promotes belonging.	£5,000.00
Wild West	We will run six community arts sessions for 100 Disabled adults in nature and online as part of Festival of Nature 2024, working in partnership with a Disabled artist. Co-creation with attendees will ensure we build on successful pilot events.	£5,000.00