What data we need to collect and the legal basis for processing it:

Processing of your data is necessary for the performance of this task carried out in the public interest or in the exercise of official authority vested in Bristol City Council (The controller).

To manage the Security service your name and address is processed to identify you as the person responsible for the vehicle released.

How long we will keep your data for:

Your records will be deleted after 7 years in line with financial regulations.

Why we need to collect your data:

Bristol City Council will use your information as there is a legislative requirement for managers to identify who is responsible for the vehicle being released and to allow us to invoice the charge for the release. This processing ensures the charge is issued to the correct person.

Yours rights as a data subject:

You have the right to request access to your data and where data is found to be inaccurate to have that data corrected. In certain circumstances you have the right to have data held about you erased, or the use of it restricted, you may be able to object to processing as well as the right to have your data transferred to another data controller.

You have the right to object to the processing of your information and to have any inaccurate information corrected. You also have a right of complaint to the Information Commissioner's Office (ICO) at www.ico.org.uk if you think we have dealt with your information in an inappropriate manner.

You can ask to see what information we hold about you and have access to it. You can do this, by contacting:
