Will my personal data be sent outside the UK?

No personal information is routinely sent or held outside the UK. Should the transfer of personal information outside the UK become necessary, it will only take place if permitted by law, and then only where there are appropriate safeguards in place to protect the data.

What is the legal basis for our use of your personal information?

The information below shows the legal bases we are relying on to use your personal or special category (sensitive) personal information.

You can see a list of the full legal bases we may rely on by looking at our main privacy notice.

Privacy Notice - Bristol City Council – Council Tax

Personal information

Our legal bases for using your personal information are to meet our legal obligations (Article 6(c) of the UK GDPR) and to exercise our tasks in the public interest (Article 6(e) of the UK GDPR).

The Council has a legal obligation to process information pertaining to Council Tax under the Local Government Finance Act 1992.

The overarching legal gateway for the processing is provided by section 111 of the Local Government Act 1972, which allows local authorities “to do anything... which is calculated to facilitate, or is conducive or incidental, to the discharge of any of their functions”.

If you ask us to provide your contact details to Money Advice Service (formerly known as the Money Advice and Pensions Service), also known as Money Advisor Network, also known as Moneyhelper, our lawful basis for processing will be Consent.

Special category (sensitive) personal information / Criminal offence data

Our additional legal basis for processing your special category information is that of Article 9(g) of the UK GDPR – Substantial Public Interest.

Our Schedule 1 condition for processing under Article 9(g) is Statutory or Government Purposes.
How long we will keep your personal information?

We keep data for current taxpayers back to the start of Council Tax in 1993 because there has yet to be a revaluation of current bands. Therefore, it is possible for an adjustment to be required back to the start of the tax.

Your rights as a data subject

The law gives you a number of rights to control what and how personal information is used by us, including the right to access a copy of your personal information and withdraw your consent when we rely on your permission to use your personal data.

Full details about how we use and share your data and your rights can be found on our Corporate Privacy Notice. If you are unable to access our digital Privacy Notice, please contact Citizens Services whom will be able to send a hard copy.
