

Privacy Notice Bristol City Council

Privacy Notice Community Right to Bid

Bristol City Council is the data controller for the purposes of the Data Protection Act 2018 and other regulations including the UK General Data Protection Regulation (UK GDPR), which means it determines what your personal data is used for and why it is collected.

The purpose of this privacy notice is to tell you about how we collect and use personal data in connection with our service. We may update this privacy notice from time to time. When we do this, we will communicate any changes to you and publish the revised privacy notice on our website.

Our main address is City Hall, College Green, Bristol, BS1 5TR and our contact details can be found on Bristol City Website

What data we need to collect and use?

To provide this service, we will collect and use some or all of the personal information below:

- Name
- Address
- Email Address
- Telephone Numbers

This information will be collected through your application form.

How do we use your personal information?

We use this information for one or more of the following reasons:

- We collect your contact details to enable us to contact you regarding your Community Right to Bid nomination application.

Who else might we share your personal information with?

Sometimes we may need to share your information, but we will only do so where we have a valid legal basis to share data. We will only share the minimum information for each circumstance. We may share some of your personal information with one or more of the following:

- In the event of a review or challenge of the application to nominate land or building your name and email address data may be disclosed to the owner of the Property and or the nominee. Please indicate in the box provided on the nomination form if you are not happy for us to share your information.

Privacy Notice Bristol City Council

What is the legal basis for our use of your personal information?

Personal information

- Processing is necessary for the performance of a task carried out in the public interest.
- Processing is necessary to meet our obligations as a public authority under the Localism Act 2011

How long we will keep your personal information?

We will hold this information for as long as it is needed, or if we are required to do so by law. In practice this means that your personal information may be retained for the relevant period listed below:

- In relation to the Community Right to Bid application, the time period is 5 years from the decision date whether successful or not.

After this, your personal information will be deleted.

Your rights as a data subject

The law gives you a number of rights to control what and how personal information is used by us, including the right to access a copy of your personal information and withdraw your consent when we rely on your permission to use your personal data.

Full details about your rights can be found in our main privacy notice. If you are unable to access our digital Privacy Notice, please contact Citizens Services whom will be able to send a hard copy.

To update or correct your information if it is inaccurate please contact Citizens Services.

To access a copy of your personal information, more details and how to make a request can be found on the data protection subject access requests page on the council website.

You can exercise any of these rights, ask questions about how we use your personal data or complain by contacting us at data.protection@bristol.gov.uk or by writing to our data protection officer at:

Data Protection Officer
Information Governance
Bristol City Council
City Hall
College Green
Bristol
BS1 5TR

If you think we have dealt with your information inappropriately or unlawfully, you have the right to complain to the ICO at: Information Commissioner's Office, Wycliffe House, Water Lane, Wilmslow, Cheshire, SK9 5AF

Website: <https://ico.org.uk/>