

Privacy Notice

Bristol City Council is the data controller for the purposes of the Data Protection Act 2018 and other regulations including the UK General Data Protection Regulation (UK GDPR), which means it determines what your personal data is used for and why it is collected.

The purpose of this privacy notice is to tell you about how we collect and use personal data in connection with our service. We may update this privacy notice from time to time. When we do this, we will communicate any changes to you and publish the revised privacy notice on our website.

Our main address is City Hall, College Green, Bristol, BS1 5TR and our contact details can be found on Bristol City Website

For the Walking For Health Programme BCC is a joint data controller with:

- The Rambler's Association.

What data we need to collect and use?

To provide this service, we will collect and use some or all of the personal information below:

- name
- address
- email address
- phone number

We get most of this information from you and from what we learn about you through your use of our services, but we may also get some information about you from the Ramblers Association

How do we use your personal information?

We use this information for one or more of the following reasons:

To contact you in relation to your walking group.

Privacy Notice Bristol City Council

Who else might we share your personal information with?

Sometimes we may need to share your information, but we will only do so where we have a valid legal basis to share data. We will only share the minimum information for each circumstance. We may share some of your personal information with one or more of the following:

We may share your information in an emergency

Will my personal data be sent outside the UK?

No personal information is routinely sent or held outside the UK. Should the transfer of personal information outside the UK become necessary, it will only take place if permitted by law, and then only where there are appropriate safeguards in place to protect the data.

What is the legal basis for our use of your personal information?

Personal information

The lawful basis for processing is Public Interest (UK GDPR ACT (6(1)(e) and the legal gateway relied on is the localism Act 2011 Section 1 – General Power of Competence. This allows us to connect with the walker and administer the walks. Demographic information (health information etc) is anonymised.

How long we will keep your personal information?

We will hold this information for as long as you are participating in the Ramblers Wellbeing Walks, or where the ongoing data sharing agreement remains in place or if we are required to do so by law.

Your data will be held for 7 years (this is the standard period for issues around legal liability) from your last participation or at the end of the data sharing agreement held with the Ramblers Wellbeing Walks.

Privacy Notice Bristol City Council

Your rights as a data subject

The law gives you a number of rights to control what and how personal information is used by us, including the right to access a copy of your personal information and withdraw your consent when we rely on your permission to use your personal data.

Full details about your rights can be found in our main privacy notice. If you are unable to access our digital Privacy Notice, please contact Citizens Services whom will be able to send a hard copy.

To update or correct your information if it is inaccurate, please contact Citizens Services.

To access a copy of your personal information, more details and how to make a request can be found on the data protection subject access requests page on the council website.

You can exercise any of these rights, ask questions about how we use your personal data or complain by contacting us at data.protection@bristol.gov.uk or by writing to our data protection officer at:

Data Protection Officer
Information Governance
Bristol City Council
City Hall
College Green
Bristol
BS1 5TR

If you think we have dealt with your information inappropriately or unlawfully, you have the right to complain to the ICO at: Information Commissioner's Office, Wycliffe House, Water Lane, Wilmslow, Cheshire, SK9 5AF

Website: <https://ico.org.uk/>